A secondary source is ________________ source from the time period being studied.

EXAMPLES:

*Look at the chapter ____, the ____________, the ______ and sub-headings, the ______ words, the pictures and their captions, ______ the review questions at the end of the sections and/or chapter and read the chapter ______.

*Turn the heading and sub-headings into ______ that are answered in the section (Ex. U.S. Goes to War ______ the process until you finish the section or chapter.

_______ or tell someone a summary of what you just read.

*Go back to the questions you wrote and see if you can answer them (if not, ________).

*Pick a ______ or set of key words that _______________ what the paragraph or section was about.

*Scan S.A.R.R. Review

*How to Read a Textbook

Copyright © 2017 History Gal. All Rights Reserved.